BANGOR, ME Maine's largest independent bank, Bangor Savings Bank, announced its plans to expand its presence in York County by opening its newest branch at 196 Main Street in Ogunquit. The bank has entered into a lease agreement subject to standard regulatory approvals. The building, previously utilized as a bank branch, will undergo renovation and modernization before being open for business as early as April, becoming Bangor Savings Bank's sixth branch in York County.

Bob Montgomery-Rice, President of Bangor Savings commented, "The opening of the Ogunquit branch is an exciting addition and complements the bank's existing presence in York County. This is a vibrant and growing region of the state, and we look forward to serving the businesses and people in the Ogunquit area with our unique combination of responsive customer service from a local, independent Maine bank, with all of the products and services of the very large national banks."

Montgomery-Rice also commented, "Bangor Savings Bank has made significant investments over the past several years, and continues to position itself as a major player in southern Maine. All of us at Bangor Savings Bank are very excited about this new branch and the chance to bring our unique 'You Matter

More' commitment to the people, businesses, and organizations of the Ogunquit area.”

Bangor Savings Bank is a community bank with the statewide resources to offer a comprehensive array of financial services. From York County to Aroostook County, the Bank delivers innovative products and services such as the Bank's Free ATMs Worldwide* benefit and charitable giving programs such as Community Matters More, which has involved tens of thousands of community members in helping Maine non-profits.
